Snow report

For a small resort, Les Gets has good selection of comfortable hotels, from two- to four-star. There's also a fair choice of apartment accommodation, however there are surprisingly few catered chalets run by UK tour operators.

Unless stated otherwise, prices are per person, based on two sharing a double or twin room half-board for seven nights, including flights and transfers.

Chalet Fleur de Neige

One of two catered chalets in Les Gets run by British tour operator Ski2, Chalet Fleur de Neige is 600m from the main lifts – a short walk or even quicker bus ride in Ski2's on-call mini-bus. The chalet has six double/ twin bedrooms, a spacious lounge and a separate dining room. Short breaks as well as full weeks are available. From £698 with Ski2 Portes du Soleil including private airport transfers and Les Gets-Morzine lift pass. Excludes flights.

Les Fermes Emiguy apartments

The three-star superior Fermes Emiguy apartments range from one- to three-bedroom, and are 400m from the main lifts. The free resort shuttle bus also stops nearby. They are well-equipped, comfortably furnished and decorated in contemporary style, and a bread-delivery service is available each morning. There's a small indoor pool, hot tub, sauna, steam room and fitness room. From £230 self-catering with Peak Retreats, based on five people sharing a two-room apartment with a separate sleeping alcove. Includes Eurotunnel crossings with free Flexiplus upgrades.

Hotel Christiania

The small, 20-room Christiania is a traditional hotel with wooden décor at the foot of the slopes, just 50m from the main lifts. Scottish-owned and staffed by British workers it has comfortable bedrooms, a bar-lounge area with log fire, children's play room, sauna and two outdoor hot tubs. From £950 with Alpine Answers.

Chalet Monet

One of family-specialist Ski Famille's seven chalets in Les Gets, Chalet Monet has large living room with wood burning stove, separate dining area and dedicated playroom. As with other Ski Famille chalets, the operator has worked with the owner to make it as family-friendly as possible, including creating four family suites as well as double and twin rooms. It also offers in-chalet child care and various other options including outdoor play and taking children to and from ski school. From £959 with Ski Famille.

Ferme de Montagne

A luxurious and lovingly restored old farmhouse, Ferme de Montagne is located in the hamlet of La Turche on the edge of Les Gets, near a drag-lift and fast chairlift into the slopes. It has just eight sumptuous bedrooms, an antique bar and comfy chairs in the library, and a sauna/steam room, outdoor hot tub and in-house therapist. The very smart restaurant serves Michelin-standard food and a ski concierge is on hand to help with equipment, book a restaurants or join guests on the slopes. From £1,950 booked direct. Excludes travel but reasonably-priced transfers in their own 4x4 vehicles can be booked separately.

Hotel Marmotte

At the foot of the slopes and lifts, the lovely four-star Hotel Marmotte started life in 1936. Now luxuriously renovated, it has 63 rooms and suites, two bars, three restaurants and two children's games rooms. The spa includes a large indoor pool, hot tub, sauna and steam room, plus 10 treatment rooms and a herbal infusion room. From £1,209 with Crystal.
